

4TH ANNUAL TARTAN PENINSULA PARTY - TIMING IS EVERYTHING !

“Here Comes the Sun” was aptly played at the start of the Tartan Peninsula Party. Wedged between spitting rain all day Saturday and a downpour at 10:45 pm, residents of The Green, Waterview Point and everybody in between gathered to celebrate friendship and the neighborhood! With a roaring fire warming The Green circle drive, neighbors enjoyed fresh oysters, keg beer from the Kilmarnock Brewhaus and live music from Bob Wilson. In addition to the oysters, potluck dishes were shared by all including such things as chili, chowder, stew and an abundance of fresh peeled shrimp and many desserts.

Thanks to all who helped with this year’s gathering, and special thanks to Charles Fulford, Bruce Julian, Finlay Smith, Peter Vaden, Maggie Belliel and Bill Turenne for their physical and financial contributions which made the party possible. A great time was had by all!

Most favorite things about the evening include:

- Two different "flavors" of draft beer*
- Local oysters prepared in a variety of ways*
- Potluck contributions that rival any restaurant in the area*
- The opportunity to visit Tartan neighbors and friends on a perfect fall evening.*

Dan and Jay share in the oyster harvest with Charles.

According to Michael, Al & David, There's nothing better than a quality cigar after a satisfying meal

As the sun set, the temperature dipped but that didn't discourage the hardy neighbors of the Tartan Peninsula. The "fire team" kept the blaze burning and everyone enjoyed the camaraderie.
